

Love of Reading activities

At Witchampton, we LOVE reading! And so, here is a selection of activities to inspire you to read this summer.

We hope you enjoy these activities and look forward to hearing all about your reading adventures!

Please also have a look at the website list we have collated where you will find websites with free resources, audio books and lots of well-known people reading books for you to enjoy.

Whatever you choose to read this summer, we hope that you enjoy reading and remember this quote from Matilda, by Roald Dahl 'the books transported her into new worlds and introduced her to amazing people who lived exciting lives. She travelled all over the world while sitting in her room in an English village'. You can go anywhere when you read a book.

Extreme Reading Challenge:

Where is the most extreme place you can read a book? Whether it is up a tree, on the top of a mountain or on your head, we would love to see!

Think of the most extreme place you could read a book and take a photo of you there! Please keep your photo safe and in September we will share our reading adventures!

Of course, we want everyone to keep safe, so we wouldn't recommend sitting in the jaws of a crocodile!

Book Group

Create a book group with your friends. Ask your grown ups to help you organise with your friends a book group on an app such as zoom and share your love of reading with your friends....a great way of keeping in touch too!

Book review

Choose a book to review... send in a photo of your book and why you liked the book (you or your grown up can write this) to mrs.dimnick@witchamptonfirst.net Keep watch on the school website for ideas of a book to read next!

Summer Reading Challenge

Take part in the Dorset Libraries Summer Reading Challenge 2020 here: <https://tinyurl.com/library-reading-challenge> "Join the all new digital Summer Reading Challenge and keep reading over the summer.

Silly Squad is a celebration of funny books, happiness and laughter for the whole family.

Read or listen to books that make you happy! These could include comics, joke books, poetry, fiction or non-fiction in digital or print format; from our library online services or from what you have at home.

Borrow eBooks and audiobooks from the library or read comics online. You'll need to be a library member to use these services, you can join online. Each time you finish a book, add a review to your profile. You'll be rewarded with online badges, games and videos. When you complete your challenge, you can download your certificate."

Reading Bingo:

Have a look at the Reading Bingo on the following page, which includes activities such as make a den and read inside, read in the dark using a torch and read to a pet or soft toy. You can choose what you read for each challenge and your whole family can join in too if they would like to! In September, those who have taken part will receive a certificate, will you tick off a whole line or have a full house?!
